

NSCSA to hold Fall Protection Regulations Update Sessions in HRM, New Glasgow and Sydney

The NSCSA will be offering 2 hour update sessions on the new Fall Protection Regulations that came into effect June 12th, 2013.

Anyone that has a current NSCSA Fall Protection certificate will not be grandfathered in after June 12th, 2013, therefore they will not be compliant with the new regulations when they come into effect.

The update session will cover the new changes to the Fall Protection Regulations only. The cost will be $10.00 per person.

You must register before you attend and have a current non-expired NSCSA Fall Protection certificate. We will update your training records with a current Fall Protection certificate that will make you compliant with the new regulations.
